Hall 100 Club

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the Hall 100 Club.

Would you please read the rules carefully and then complete and return the tear off slip below as soon as possible. Provided that there is a number available you will be eligible for entry in the next draw.

If you are joining after the Club year has started the membership fee for the year will be adjusted pro rata.

Payment can be in cash or via cheque, internet banking or monthly standing order (£4 per month). However please do not send any money until your membership has been confirmed.

With thanks again and best wishes

Martyn Davey
Chair

5. Specific Arrangements

5.1 Hall 100 Club

New members will be made aware of the General Data Protection Regulations when they apply to join. They will be informed of the Hall's Data Protection Policy, the personal information that will be collected and held against their names and the use to which it will be put. Their explicit consent to the information being held and processed will be requested. They will be asked to return the completed forms with their subscriptions.

Existing members as at 24 May 2018 were made aware of the General Data Protection Regulations when they were invited to renew their subscriptions. They were informed of the Hall's Data Protection Policy, the personal information that had previously been collected and held against their names and the use to which it will be put in future. Their explicit consent to the information being held and processed was requested on their renewal forms. This was recorded on the completed forms returned with their subscriptions.

5.2 Film Club and Other Hall Events

New members will be made aware of the new regulations when they apply to join. They will be informed of the Hall's Data Protection Policy, the personal information to be collected and held against their names and the use to which it will be put. Their explicit consent to the information being held and processed will be requested. They will be asked to sign a consent form.

Consent was sought from existing members via email prior to 24 May 2018. They were informed of the Hall's Data Protection Policy, the personal information that had been collected and held against their names and the use to which it will be put in future. Their explicit consent to the information being held and processed was requested. Emailed replies were archived. Where no reply was received the data was deleted.

5.3 Hall Hire

Individuals hiring the Hall (whether in their own right or on behalf of an organisation) will be made aware of the new regulations when they make a booking. They will be informed of the Hall's Data Protection Policy, the personal information that will be held against their booking and the use to which it will be put. Their explicit consent to the information being held by the Hall will be sought. They will be asked to return the completed forms with their booking details and deposit.

The data processing procedures used by the Hall will be formally documented and made available to hirers on request.

6. Subject Data Access

Individuals have the right, at any time, to be given a copy of their personal details when they are requested, to ask for them to be amended if they are incorrect or incomplete, or to have them removed. This can be done by using the Contact link on the Hall website. A response will be given within 14 days.
